

When calculating your base rate of pay the following rules apply in your circumstances:

16 Meaning of base rate of pay

General meaning

- (1) The base rate of pay of a national system employee is the rate of pay payable to the employee for his or her ordinary hours of work, but not including any of the following:
 - (a) incentive-based payments and bonuses;
 - (b) loadings;
 - (c) monetary allowances;
 - (d) overtime or penalty rates;
 - (e) any other separately identifiable amounts.

20 Meaning of ordinary hours of work for award/agreement free employees

Agreed ordinary hours of work

- (1) The ordinary hours of work of an award/agreement free employee are the hours agreed by the employee and his or her national system employer as the employee's ordinary hours of work.

If the agreed hours are less than usual weekly hours

- (3) If, for an award/agreement free employee who is not a full-time employee, there is an agreement under subsection (1) between the employee and his or her national system employer, but the agreed ordinary hours of work are less than the employee's usual weekly hours of work, the ordinary hours of work of the employee in a week are the lesser of:
 - (a) 38 hours; and
 - (b) the employee's usual weekly hours of work.

1.11 Meaning of ordinary hours of work for award/agreement free employees

- (1) For subsection 20(4) of the Act, this regulation provides for the determination of hours that are taken to be the usual weekly hours of work of an award/agreement free employee who:
 - (a) is not a full-time employee; and
 - (b) does not have usual weekly hours of work.

Note: Under section 20 of the Act, the usual weekly hours of work of an award/agreement free employee are relevant to establishing the employee's ordinary hours of work.

- (2) To work out the usual weekly hours of work for an employee who has been employed by the employer for at least 4 weeks:
 - (a) identify the total number of hours that the employee has worked during the previous 4 completed weeks; and

	(b) divide the result by 4. (3) To work out the usual weekly hours of work for an employee who has been employed by the employer for less than 4 weeks: (a) identify the total number of hours that the employee has worked during the period; and (b) divide the result by the number of completed weeks for which the employee has been employed by the employer.
