

2.29 Exceptional circumstances — primary claimants who have no specific relationship with child

- (1) This rule is made for paragraph 2.28 (1) (d) and applies to a person who is not:
 - (a) the partner of the birth mother of the child; or
 - (b) for an adopted child — the partner of the adoptive parent of the child; or
 - (c) for parents who are divorced or separated:
 - (i) the other legal parent of the child; or
 - (ii) the partner of the other legal parent of the child.
- (2) For a person to whom this rule applies, the circumstances are as follows:
 - (b) the child was not entrusted to the care of the person, or to the care of the person's partner, under a decision by a State or Territory child protection agency under legislation dealing with child protection in the State or Territory;
