

13 Determination on a primary claim made alone

When parental leave pay is payable to primary claimant

- (2) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is payable to the primary claimant for the primary claimant's PPL period if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that the primary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day the child was born; and
- (b) ends on the last day of the primary claimant's PPL period.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

Primary claimant's PPL period

- (3) The Secretary must specify in the determination under subsection (2) that the primary claimant's PPL period:
- (a) starts on the child's maximum PPL period start day; and
 - (b) ends on:
 - (i) if the Secretary is satisfied that the primary claimant was or will be eligible on each day in the child's maximum PPL period—the child's maximum PPL period end day; or
 - (ii) if the Secretary is satisfied that the primary claimant was or will be eligible for a period that is shorter than the child's maximum PPL period—the last day in the child's maximum PPL period that the primary claimant was or will be eligible.

11 The determination must specify the person's PPL period

- (2) A person's PPL period must be the same as, or within, the maximum PPL period for the child.
- (3) The maximum PPL period for a child is the period that:
- (a) starts on the child's maximum PPL period start day; and
 - (b) ends on the child's maximum PPL period end day.
- (4) The maximum PPL period start day for a child is:
- (a) if, on or before the day (the relevant day) that is 28 days after the day the child was born, the primary claimant both made an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child and verified the child's birth—the later of the following days:
 - (i) the day the child was born;
 - (ii) the primary claimant's nominated start date; and
 - (b) if, on or before the relevant day, the primary claimant made an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child but did not verify the child's birth—the later of the following days:
 - (i) the day the primary claimant verifies the child's birth;
 - (ii) the primary claimant's nominated start date; and
 - (c) if the primary claimant makes an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child after the relevant day—the later of the following days:
