

You must include this information in the notice.

110 Notice and evidence requirements

(2) The notice:

- (a) must be given to the employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the absence has started); and
- (b) must advise the employer of the period, or expected period, of the absence.

Compliance

- (4) An employee's absence from his or her employment is not covered by this Division unless the employee complies with this section.