

Days with purpose other than to facilitate your return to your employment after the end of your leave are not valid “keeping in touch day”. Your responses suggest that you have returned to work, and you may not be eligible to claim PPL.

48 When a person returns to work

A person returns to work on a day that is on or after the birth of a child if, on that day, the person performs one hour or more of paid work other than for a permissible purpose.

50 Performing paid work on a keeping in touch day

A day on which a person performs paid work for an entity on a day that would otherwise be a day of leave in a period of leave granted by that entity is a keeping in touch day if:

- (a) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the person to keep in touch with his or her employment or engagement in order to facilitate a return to that employment or engagement after the end of the period of leave; and
