Entitlement to unpaid pre-adoption leave

- (1) An employee is entitled to up to 2 days of unpaid pre-adoption leave to attend any interviews or examinations required in order to obtain approval for the employee's adoption of a child.

Note: Entitlement is also affected by section 68 (which deals with the age etc. of the adopted child).

- (2) However, an employee is not entitled to take a period of unpaid pre-adoption leave if:
  - (a) the employee could instead take some other form of leave; and
  - (b) the employer directs the employee to take that other form of leave.
- (3) An employee who is entitled to a period of unpaid pre-adoption leave is entitled to take the leave as:
  - (a) a single continuous period of up to 2 days; or
  - (b) any separate periods to which the employee and the employer agree.

Notice and evidence

- (4) An employee must give his or her employer notice of the taking of unpaid pre-adoption leave by the employee.
- (5) The notice:
  - (a) must be given to the employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and
  - (b) must advise the employer of the period, or expected period, of the leave.
- (6) An employee who has given his or her employer notice of the taking of unpaid pre-adoption leave must, if required by the employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken to attend an interview or examination as referred to in subsection (1).
- (7) An employee is not entitled to take unpaid pre-adoption leave unless the employee complies with subsections (4) to (6).

68 General rule for adoption-related leave—child must be under 16 etc.

An employee is not entitled to adoption-related leave unless the child that is, or is to be, placed with the employee for adoption:

- (a) is, or will be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- (b) has not, or will not have, lived continuously with the employee for a period of 6 months or more as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- (c) is not (otherwise than because of the adoption) a child of the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto partner.
