

Your responses suggest that you don't meet the prerequisites to making a conversion request under the statutory framework.

Subdivision C—Residual right to request casual conversion

66F Employee requests

(1) A casual employee may make a request of an employer under this section if:

(c) all of the following apply:

(ii) the employer has not, at any time during that period, given the employee a notice in accordance with paragraph 66C(3)(a) (which deals with notice of employer decisions not to make offers on reasonable grounds);

Note: Nothing in this Subdivision prevents an employee from requesting to convert to full-time or part-time employment outside the provisions of this Division, or prevents an employer from granting such a request.

66B Employer offers

66C When employer offers not required

(1) Despite section 66B, an employer is not required to make an offer under that section to a casual employee if:

- (a) there are reasonable grounds not to make the offer; and
- (b) the reasonable grounds are based on facts that are known, or reasonably foreseeable, at the time of deciding not to make the offer.