

Your responses suggest that you are a parent of the child for PPL purposes.

Division 2—The Dictionary

6 The Dictionary

In this Act:

parent:

- (c) when used in relation to a child born because of a surrogacy arrangement—includes a person who is a parent of the child under section 60HB of the Family Law Act 1975.

54 Who can make a primary claim, secondary claim or tertiary claim

Primary claim

- (1) Only the following people can make a primary claim for a child:

- (c) a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a primary claim can be made.

2.30 Exceptional circumstance — surrogacy arrangements

- (1) This rule applies to a person who is a parent of a child born because of a surrogacy arrangement.
- (2) For a person to whom this rule applies, the circumstances are that the person became the parent of the child because a court made an order:
 - (a) under a law prescribed for the purposes of section 60HB of the Family Law Act 1975; or
 - (b) under a law of a State or Territory transferring the parentage of the child to the claimant.
