

Your responses suggest that you may be protected from any adverse action taken by your employer.

66L Other rights and obligations

- (1) An employer must not reduce or vary an employee's hours of work, or terminate an employee's employment, in order to avoid any right or obligation under this Division.

Note: The general protections provisions in Part 3-1 also prohibit the taking of adverse action by an employer against an employee (which includes a casual employee) because of a workplace right of the employee under this Division.

- (2) Nothing in this Division:
- (a) requires an employee to convert to full-time employment or part-time employment; or
 - (b) permits an employer to require an employee to convert to full-time employment or part-time employment; or
 - (c) requires an employer to increase the hours of work of an employee who requests conversion to full-time employment or part-time employment under this Division.
