

384 Period of employment

- (1) An employee's period of employment with an employer at a particular time is the period of continuous service the employee has completed with the employer at that time as an employee.
- (2) However:
  - (a) a period of service as a casual employee does not count towards the employee's period of employment unless:
    - (i) the employment as a casual employee was as a regular casual employee; and
    - (ii) during the period of service as a casual employee, the employee had a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis; and

22 Meanings of service and continuous service

General meaning

- (1) A period of service by a national system employee with his or her national system employer is a period during which the employee is employed by the employer, but does not include any period (an excluded period) that does not count as service because of subsection (2).
- (2) The following periods do not count as service:
  - (a) any period of unauthorised absence;
  - (b) any period of unpaid leave or unpaid authorised absence, other than:
    - (i) a period of absence under Division 8 of Part 2-2 (which deals with community service leave); or
    - (ii) a period of stand down under Part 3-5, under an enterprise agreement that applies to the employee, or under the employee's contract of employment; or
    - (iii) a period of leave or absence of a kind prescribed by the regulations;
  - (c) any other period of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) An excluded period does not break a national system employee's continuous service with his or her national system employer, but does not count towards the length of the employee's continuous service.
  - (b) if:
    - (i) the employee is a transferring employee in relation to a transfer of business from an old employer to a new employer; and
    - (ii) the old employer and the new employer are not associated entities when the employee becomes employed by the new employer; and
    - (iii) the new employer informed the employee in writing before the new employment started that a period of service with the old employer would not be recognised;

the period of service with the old employer does not count towards the employee's period of employment with the new employer.

When service with one employer counts as service with another employer

- (5) If there is a transfer of employment (see subsection (7)) in relation to a national system employee:
- (a) any period of service of the employee with the first employer counts as service of the employee with the second employer; and
  - (b) the period between the termination of the employment with the first employer and the start of the employment with the second employer does not break the employee's continuous service with the second employer (taking account of the effect of paragraph (a)), but does not count towards the length of the employee's continuous service with the second employer.
